Subject: 100% FINANCING for your Cost of Goods/Growth Capital

Good Day!

Do you have orders from your buyers that you are having difficulty to fulfill because your traditional funding sources are not sufficient to fund your growth or due to seasonal cash flow problems?

Purchase Order Financing can help. Ashford Finance will finance 100% of your cost of goods charged by your suppliers to fulfill your orders from your end buyers thus sustaining your growth without any capital constraints.

Ashford Finance, based in New York since 1986, specializes in Trade Finance and Purchase Order Financing whereby we will pay your supplier 100% of your cost of goods based on the credit worthiness of your end buyers rather than your balance sheet, equity, or outstanding invoices. Ashford Finance will advance against your purchase orders before a receivable is created.

We will also finance the resulting receivables providing one stop seamless funding for your growth. This means that no money is coming out of your pocket to pay your supplier, carry your receivable and you will be able to grow your company without capital or funding restrictions. We finance US and Canadian companies.

If you would give us the opportunity, we would present to you all the details and try to personalize a funding solution for your firm for your perusal.

We look forward to hearing from you soon.

Dear FORA Board Members;

On a 3-2 vote tonight, the Board of Directors of the Marina Coast Water District appointed Peter Le to the District's ex-officio seat on the FORA Board, with Howard Gustafson as the alternate. I've very much enjoyed representing the District on the FORA Board for the past two years and intend to continue participating on the FORA PRAC unless the FORA Board determines otherwise.

Here's wishing the Board the best of luck in the New Year!

Sincerely yours,
Tom Moore

Subject: Fort Ord - Internet Documentary Series

Hello,

My name is Brian Pendergast and I'm an Associate Producer at Discovery Digital Networks in San Francisco. I'm working on a new show called "Abandonment Issues" which is a short, internet documentary program that highlights old and abandoned buildings. The show will feature our host and an expert touring the building and talking about the history of the property. I was wondering if Fort Ord had any abandoned buildings that have yet to be torn down or preserved that we might get to tour. We'd love to tell the story of the land, from its past as a military base to its future. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to ask. Thanks so much.

Subject: Fort Ord Trails Symposium 2015

To FORA Board,

I have been contacted by equestrians in your area who are concerned that you have not included an equestrian speaker in your upcoming 2015 Fort Ord Trails Symposium.

I serve as the equestrian representative on the American Trails Board of Directors and if I had been aware of this Fort Ord Trails Symposium I would have been willing to serve with your panel of speakers.

Please include me in future trail invitations addressing the planning and design of the Fort Ord Trails so I can balance the discussions relating to the public's use of these facilities. I am the author of the national design guidebook for equestrian trails that has been used as a design guidebook for USDA Forest Service, BLM, and National Park Service land management agencies, and it is important that your planning group adequately represent the equestrian users and make an effort to reach out to persons with equestrian trail design expertise in your planning efforts.

Here is a link to the publication I authored under government contract to me by the U.S. Department of Transportation, Federal Highway Administration, and the USDA Forest Service, Technology and Develop program:
